MORRILL MUSINGS

Message from the Director,

Charlotte Canelli

- Write your own story about how the library has helped you save money. Go to Woman's Day Magazine (www.womansday.com/ala) before May 18 and write your essay of 700 words or less. Four stories will be featured in the magazine.
- Don't forget there is free WiFi Internet access in the Morrill Memorial Library. Bring your laptop and find a cozy corner, convenient table or study carrel.

If you've ever toyed with the idea of writing a personal essay, sign up for a two-hour interactive lecture with award-winning Irish author Aine Greaney on Wednesday, March 18 at 6:30 p.m. Greaney will offer a longer, hands-on workshop entitled "Your Long Story Short" on writing and publishing your own story on a Saturday at a later date. Participation is limited so register early for the evening program by calling 781-769-0200.

For an entertaining and informative glimpse into American history, come to the library on Thursday, March 26 at 7 p.m. for a "live" interview with FDR's housekeeper, Henrietta Nesbitt. Portrayed by the Norwood Library's own Beth Goldman, Nesbitt will be interviewed by Karol Bartlett from the Morse Institute Library in Natick in the delightful program, "Henrietta Cooks!" Learn how Henrietta's interpretation of what the First Lady and the President required often put her at odds with the First Family as well as the press and royalty, among others.

Two Old Friends Mac McHale and Emery Hutchins will be returning on March 29 at 3 p.m. for the fifth in our Musical Sundays at the Library series. McHale and Hutchins will perform a variety of Irish sea songs and traditional country music combined with some hot-picking instrumentals and sing-alongs in their timely Tune into Spring concert.

The Baystatesmen Barbershop Chorus cancelled due to snow on March 1st. We will let you know when they have been rescheduled.

Two performances for the fall have already been planned for Musical Sundays at the Library series: Ellen Schwartz and Roger Bruno from Too Human on October 18th and blues performers, Paul and Annie, on November 15th. Mark your calendars!

Norwood Community Partnership for Children Events
